

10,000 PLEDGED ON MASONIC DEBT

Stockholders of Masonic Temple Association Surrender Half of Stock and it is Resold

ROASTING AT THE PIG ROAST

Many Masons Make Pledges With Understanding That Building Goes to Phoenix Lodge

Ten thousand dollars was subscribed at the pig roast given by Phoenix lodge No. 62, Free and Accepted Masons, last night, to cut in the debt on the Masonic Temple, which was completed in 1915 on site of building destroyed by fire in 1913.

Reduction of the debt by April 1, it was explained by officers of the Masonic Temple association, and in order to raise more money among other Masons, the fifty-five stockholders of the association surrendered half of their stock, to be resold.

In accordance with this arrangement, the stockholders of the association, which has a paid-up stock of $20,000 in effect contributed $10,000 toward the building and the balance subscribed till $10,000 last night, will have something to show for their subscriptions in the form of stock certificates.

The belief of Masons generally is that the Temple will eventually be given to Phoenix lodge. Some of the stockholders have announced on several occasions that they will donate their stock to the lodge, so that the Masons will be assured of a permanent home, just as soon as Phoenix lodge is able to assume the responsibility.

Several Masons who subscribed stock last night did so with the understanding that it would go to Phoenix lodge, so that in effect the 10,000 pledged last night was a gift to the lodge.

The first Masonic building was erected on the site of the present fifteen years ago and was destroyed by fire in 1913. The association made financial arrangements to build a new Temple, but during the five years that it has been occupied, has been unable to pay any of the original debt, due to the mounting cost of fuel and repairs.

George C. Wyatt, president of the association presided at the business meeting following the pig roast and briefly outlined what had to be accomplished by April 1. James V. Baum, secretary of the association, explained the financial history of the association and made it emphatic that members of Phoenix lodge would have to come to its assistance.

There was one subscription of $700, another of $600 and several of $200 and $100. The value of the stock is fifty dollars a share.

There was much rejoicing among Masons after the $10,000 had been pledged, because they regarded it as assurance that the Temple would always be the home of Phoenix lodge.

Approximately one hundred and fifty Masons enjoyed the pig roast, which was served at 6:30 o'clock, following work in the Master Masons degree, which was given in the afternoon and concluded in the evening. The degree was exemplified by past masters of Phoenix lodge among the principal parts. The pigs were donated by Merrill Ball and Walter Cross.

THINKS HUSBAND IS NOT GUILTY

Mrs. Clara Demaree, Wife of Man in Jail Here, Tells Sheriff Jones Interesting Facts

SAYS HE WAS AN AGENT

Also Gives Officials Information Which is Expected to Lead to Further Arrests

Greensburg, Ind., Feb. 6.—Harvey Yazell, the eighteen-year-old boy who was arrested in connection with the robbery of the Hamilton home in Greensburg Tuesday evening, pleaded guilty to a charge of first degree burglary in the circuit court here this morning and was sentenced to serve a term of from one to fourteen years in the state reformatory. The court room was crowded when he was arraigned.

Sheriff Jones held a long talk with Mrs. Clara Demaree, wife of the man held in jail here in connection with the robbery at the home of Dr. D. H. Dean here last fall. The sheriff would not permit the woman to see her husband, and she told the officer that she was going to tell the truth and free Boaz Demaree of the burglary charges.

The woman told the sheriff some important facts concerning the various robberies, but stated that her husband was innocent of house-breaking, and that he was only an agent, receiving the stolen goods.

The woman said that much of the stolen goods were brought to their house in Greensburg by Demaree's brother, Jesse, who is now serving a term in the state prison for burglary crimes, being sent from Greensburg last month.

The sheriff would not disclose much of their conversation as she told him some important facts concerning the robbers, which will no doubt throw much light on the case. She denied having ever seen or heard tell of the man that was shot in Greensburg, and also denied ever seeing the man held in the Greensburg jail.

She made it very emphatic in her conversation that she was going to tell the truth, and told the officers that she would do anything that she possibly could do, that would help them in finding the guilty parties, who robbed the Dean home and the hardware store in Carthage.

The sheriff, who had not intended the man held in jail here should learn about the Greensburg robbery and the killing of one of the men, handed him an Indianapolis paper, in which he read the account. The sheriff noticed the expression on his face as he read it, and said that he looked as if he was surprised.

All of the jewelry taken at the Hamilton home in Greensburg has been received with the exception of a diamond ring. The jewelry was found along the railroad by section men and turned over to the owners.

The body of Frank Townsend, companion of Yazell's, who was shot and killed by a Big Bear detective shortly after the burglary, was transferred here last night from the Big Bear to the Pennsylvania railroad while being taken to the home of the deceased in Richmond for funeral services and burial.

HEAVY HAULING DAMAGES ROADS

People Should Use Judgment and Not Overload Trucks While Roads Are Muddy and Soft

LAWS FOR THAT PURPOSE

Much Money is Expended Here Annually For Upkeep of Roads Damaged by Winter Traffic

Many farmers and advocates of good roads have started a campaign in this county against heavy hauling on the roads at this time of the year pointing out in their complaints that there are laws against heavy hauling, which tears into the roads and makes additional expense in the spring in repairing them.

The snow and ice that has been on the roads for almost six weeks has caused them to become muddy and very soft. A heavy truck or wagon will cut the roads and make them almost impassable.

There are hundreds of miles of gravel roads in Rush county, and the cost for the maintenance of these roads amounts to a considerable sum each year. It was pointed out that less heavy hauling would lessen the cost in keeping up the roads.

The state laws protect the roads, placing certain amount of tonnage on wagons and trucks, and prohibit the overloading of the vehicles. An example was mentioned of a Connersville moving van owned by a man who lives in another county, paying taxes only on a few personal effects and driving a four or five ton load of goods over the soft roads in this county. This one trip alone would cost his county more for the repairing of the damaged road, than the truck or personal property of the man was worth.

It has also been pointed out that many people driving large touring cars for pleasure, with tires six and seven inches in width, should not be allowed on the soft roads at this time of the year.

County officials do not wish to bring out the law on the subject and work hardships on anyone, but people with good judgment would refrain from using the roads only when necessity compels them to, and when that time comes, they should use good judgment and not make the load too heavy.

The large trucks used for carrying logs from the country to the Reynolds Manufacturing Company, in this city, have not been using the roads, and according to Mr. Reynolds, they will not go out until the roads become in such a shape that they can travel without damaging the public highways.

Other firms should follow the custom adopted by the local firm, and refrain from the heavy hauling at this time of the year it is believed.

STOCK YARDS NOT SANITARY, HE SAYS

Fred Bell, President of County Farmers Association, Reports on Committee Investigation

MEETING AT GINGS SCHOOL

Resolution Opposes Re-Enactment of Daylight Savings Law and Urges Old Time in Rushville

The Union Township Farmers' association held their regular monthly meeting in the Gings school house last evening, with about 75 were present. The Mays orchestra provided the music.

County President Bell made a report on the investigation of the livestock committee of which he is a member. He stated that they found the service of the Belt Railway deplorable and that when stock does not reach market on time, the Belt railway is usually responsible. The charges are also excessive, he claims. Before the government control took place, the Belt delivered hogs from the yards to the packers at one cent per head. The charge is now 8 cents per head, Mr. Bell explained.

The yards, Mr. Bell said, are unsanitary and the equipment for watering sheep and calves are entirely inadequate. Many thousand dollars are lost annually to shippers because of the lack of proper fill. Mr. Rowe, it was stated, practically owns the yards and the bank at the yards. The commission men are at his mercy and when they complain they are moved to less favorable quarters, he declared. The commission men, therefore, welcome the action of the Farmers' Association because it will aid in obtaining conditions that enable them to give their customers better service. Mr. Bell stated that the outlook for improved conditions are bright.

Howard Ewbank, county secretary, reported his experience at the yards a few days ago, when 6 cars of stock from Rush county and 9 other cars on the same train were allowed to sit on the Belt railway for nearly 24 hours after delivery and placed at the yards after considerable abuse being heaped on the head by the chief dispatcher of the Belt when he made complaint. The threat of the Farmers' Association brought results, when Mr. Ewbank and a co-sufferer threatened to direct the work of tearing up the railroad and sowing it to oats before night if the cars were not set.

A resolution was passed opposing the re-enactment of a daylight saving law and asking Rushville business men to use the old time. The next meeting will be held at Greenwood on the first Thursday evening in March.

NEW SUITS FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT

Martin Warner Asks Title to 16 Acres be Quietly Alleging 21 Others Have Claim on Land.

FILES SUIT FOR A RECEIVER

Nathan R. Farlow, as Executor of Will of His Father, Brings Action Against His Brother

Among the new suits filed in circuit court here is one which asks that the court quiet a title to real estate, another suit in replevin and a third suit in which damages are asked.

Martin Warner has filed the quiet title case, naming Mary Ann Barber of Franklin county and 21 others as defendants. The defendants live in every county around here, and the complaint goes back to the year 1857 when the land was recorded in the name of Eliphalet Barber.

The complaint alleges that the title to the 16 acres involved is now in the plaintiff's name, but the 22 defendants each have a claim on the land, and his request for the court is that he be declared the rightful owner.

The Farmers National Bank of Newcastle has filed a replevin suit against Donel Laughlin of this county. The article for which possession is sought is given as an Oldsmobile truck.

Nathan R. Farlow, as executor of the will of his father, Washington Farlow, who died December 31, 1910, has brought suit for $500 damages also asks for the appointment of a receiver.

The complaint states that in the spring of last year John D. Farlow was a tenant on his father's farm of 62 1/2 acres, on that 56 acres of this land was planted in corn. That the court here issued a decree in the summer, after trouble had arisen between father and son, is also alleged, and the decree was to the effect that the corn should be gathered and divided equally by the defendant, and placed in bins.

The plaintiff alleges that this corn is now in the field, unharvested and ungathered, and as the father has since died, the executor is entitled to the one-half interest in the corn. Because the corn was permitted to remain ungathered, the complaint states that it has deteriorated at least $700, being worth in October $1,200.

The plaintiff asks that a receiver be appointed to gather the corn and place it in bins, and because of the loss sustained asks $500 damages.

Appollonia Shauck, defendant in a divorce case filed by Albert G. Shauck of Arlington, has petitioned for a change of venue from Rush county. The petition was acted favorably upon and will be sent to Henry county.

The evidence was submitted yesterday in the case of Alonzo R. Fernster against James W. Henly, et al., in a suit to set aside a fraudulent conveyance of real estate. The case was taken under advisement by Judge Sparks, after hearing the evidence.

The indictment charges against Ora Cline for contributing to the delinquency of Gladys Smith, has been quashed upon motion of the defendant. The state then filed another charge of encouraging delinquency, and he was arrested yesterday on that charge, and was released on $500 bond, after entering a plea of not guilty. The case is set for Monday.

Alva N. Harold, defendant in an account suit filed by James W. Hensley, has asked for a change of venue in the case, and no action has been taken on the petition. The case heard here a few weeks ago of Frederick Hillgrove against Horrie Brooks and others, in a suit to set aside a deed, has filed a motion for a new trial. The motion has not been acted upon as yet.

LOSE GAME TO FAST VISITING QUINTET

Local Independents, Playing Under Name of Odd Fellows Team, Defeated by Connersville.

FINAL SCORE IS 32 TO 19

Rushville Draws First Blood and Holds Visitors in First Half—Walk Away in Last Period

The local Independent team, playing under the name of the Odd Fellows team, went down in defeat last night here at the hands of the Connersville Independents, the final score being 32 to 19.

Much rivalry has existed between these two teams this winter, and at the beginning of the season a three game series was arranged, the first game being lost by the locals at Connersville, and then the series was tied up when Connersville played here. The deciding game was played here last night on the high school floor, which was considered a neutral place, as the former game here was played in the Modern Appliance building in West Third street.

It was clearly seen last night by the big attendance that Rushville people will support an independent team, if the high school gymnasium could be secured for all of the games.

The first half was very close and exciting, and the final outcome could not be foreseen until after a few minutes of play in the last half, when the locals seemed to lose their fighting spirit, and allowed Connersville gradually to walk away.

At the beginning of the game, Martin, center for the locals, suffered an injury to his thumb, which bleed profusely and caused him much inconvenience. He could not play his usual game because of the injury.

The game was expected to be rough, but it was not so rough and the two teams played fast ball. Keating started the scoring for Rushville with a field goal, and Smelser knocked one in from a tip-up under the basket. Then Henley threw a foul goal, giving the locals a five point lead before the visitors had secured a point.

In short order, however, the visitors found the basket for three trips, edging one point ahead. In this half the score saw-sawed and ended with the visitors in the lead 12 to 10.

It seemed, however, that Rushville lacked the speed and goal shooting in the final period, and Meyers for Connersville hit the basket five times on easy shots, which he had his time in making.

The locals seemed afraid to take shots at the basket, and after working the ball down to their end of the floor would lose it. Neither side made any long field goals, and all of the points were within close range of the basket.

It was seen that the locals were off in the last half in hitting the basket, as they missed a great many easy shots underneath of the basket.

While the majority of fans would like to have seen Rushville win the final game, nevertheless they witnessed a good, fast game, and were satisfied with the showing the team made. Connersville showed that they had practiced for the game and this was their second game this week, while the locals have played only one game within three weeks.

The curtain raiser between the 8th grade team from Fairview and the 8th grade team here, furnished much amusement and resulted in a 30 to 3 score for the local youngsters.

The score and summary:
Connersville (32) Rushville (19)
Meyers F. Henley
Turner F. Smelser
Lipps C. Martin
Manard G. Petry
Wanley G. Keating
Field goals: Meyers 6, Turner, Lipps 3, Manard 4, Wanley 2, Henley 2, Smelser, Martin 3, Keating 2, four goals Henley 3 out of 8, and Turner six misses, no goals. Referee Ross Smith, Indianapolis.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects. All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath. Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c.

DECLINE IN PRICES OF NECESSITIES LIKELY

Government Officials Agree it is Possible if Foreign Loans are Discontinued.

WILL REDUCE U. S. EXPORTS.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 6—A big drop in prices of necessities is only a few weeks away, government officials agreed here today, if the present record of loans at foreign exchange rates is discontinued.

England, France and Italy will be forced quickly, it was predicted, to curtail their purchases in American markets.

This means reduction in volume of American exports, the officials said.

Breadstuffs and dairy products are now being exported to foreign countries at the rate of $4,000,000 a day by American growers, packers and exporters, the government report shows.

The drop suddenly into the domestic market of such vast quantities of food would quickly force down prices.

The officials were divided in opinion, however, as to whether curtailment of exports in the long run would be beneficial to the United States.

HAVENS FUNERAL MONDAY

The funeral services for the late Mrs. George H. Havens who died suddenly Wednesday night at her home in North Main street, will be held at the residence, 731 North Main, Monday afternoon at 1:30, with the Rev. C. S. Black in charge. Burial will be made in East Hill cemetery. Walter Havens, a son, is on his way here from his home in McGill, Nevada, and is expected to arrive Sunday night.

CURTAILMENT WOULD REDUCE THE H. C. I.

Chicago Men Say Elimination of World Trade Would Divert Products to Home Market

INCREASE THE LOCAL SUPPLY

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 6—A drop in prices within 90 days in the country generally will result from the curtailment of foreign trade, Chicago officials believed today.

"This drop in the foreign exchange rate will eliminate the world trade", E. Wagner, broker said.

"Diverting all manufactured products to home trade can help to end the high costs. It is beneficial to America", he added.

Storage houses will be overstocked when the European demand is cut off, said J. Rhoe, manager of the Western Cold Storage company. All the cold storage food can't be sold at the prevailing high prices, he said.

Higher Prices Undesirable

Further increases in the cost of commodities are inconsistent with this country's welfare, it is declared by the National Bank of Commerce in New York in the February number of its magazine, Commerce Monthly. In its Market Letter the bank points out that of twenty-six staple products quoted, seventeen showed a gain last month over December prices, while only four showed a decline. "Moreover," it adds, "only in the case of one or two increases can the rise be ascribed to causes

"OVERTHROW WORLD ORDER!" CRY COMMUNISTS

Manifesto of Communist International, Seized in U. S. Department of Justice Raids, Tells "Reds" Own Story of Their Plans for World Wide Plunder.

Extracts from "Manifesto of the Communist International—Adopted by the Congress of the Communist International at Moscow, March 2-4, 1919, and signed by Comrades G. Rakovsky, N. Lenin, M. Zinovjev, L. Trotsky and Fritz Platten."

Alongside the dethroned dynasties of the Romanoffs, Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs, and the capitalist cliques of these lands, the rulers of France, England, Italy and the United States stand revealed in the light of unfolding events and diplomatic disclosures in their immeasurable villainess.

Spurning the half-heartedness, hypocrisy and corruption of the decadent official socialist parties we, the Communists assembled in the Third International, feel ourselves to be the direct successors of the heroic efforts and martyrdom of a long series of revolutionary generations from Baboef to Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg. As the First International foresaw the future development and pointed the way; as the Second International gathered together and organized millions of the proletariat, so the Third International is the international of open mass-action of the revolutionary realization, the international of deeds. Socialist criticism has sufficiently stigmatized the bourgeois world order. The task of the International Communist Party is now to overthrow this order and to erect in its place the structure of the socialist world order. We urge the working men and women of all countries to unite under the Communist banner, the emblem under which the first great victories have already been won.

Proletarians of all lands! In the war against imperialistic barbarity, against monarchy, against the privileged classes, against the bourgeois state and bourgeois property, against all forms and varieties of social and national oppression—UNITE!

Under the standard of the Workingmen's Councils, under the banner of the Third International, in the revolutionary struggle for power and the Dictatorship of the Proletariat, proletarians of all countries UNITE!

The revolutionary era compels the proletariat to make use of the means of battle which will concentrate its entire energies, namely, mass action, with its logical resultant, direct conflict with the governmental machinery in open combat. All other methods, such as revolutionary use of bourgeois parliamentarism, will be of only secondary significance.

The indispensable condition for successful struggle is separation not only from the direct servitors of Capitalism and enemies of the communist revolution, in which role the Social Democrats of the Right appear, but also from the Party of the Center (Kautskians), who desert the proletariat at the critical moment in order to come to terms with its open antagonists.

The growth of the revolutionary movement in all lands, the dangers of suppression of this revolution through the coalition of capitalist States, the attempts of the Socialist betrayers to unite with one another (the formation of the Yellow "International" at Berne), and to give their services to the Wilsonian League; finally, the absolute necessity for co-ordination of proletarian actions—all these demand the formation of a real revolutionary and real proletarian Communist International. This International, which subordinates the so-called national interests to the interests of the international revolution, will personify the mutual help of the proletariat of the different countries, for without economic and other mutual helpfulness the proletariat will not be able to organize the new society.

Incalculable are the sacrifices of the working class. Their best—Liebknecht, Rosa Luxemburg—they have lost. Against this the proletariat must defend itself, defend at any price. The Communist International calls the entire world proletariat to this final struggle.

DOWN WITH THE IMPERIAL CONSPIRACY OF CAPITAL!
LONG LIVE THE INTERNATIONAL REPUBLIC OF THE PROLETARIAN COUNCILS!

Moscow, March 2-4, 1919.

operative in the market for that commodity alone.

"For a considerable period, the volume of commercial and financial transactions has been out of proportion to the physical volume of production on which they were based. Steadily rising prices have been a reflection of this situation, which is evident to all who are accustomed to look beyond the surface indications.

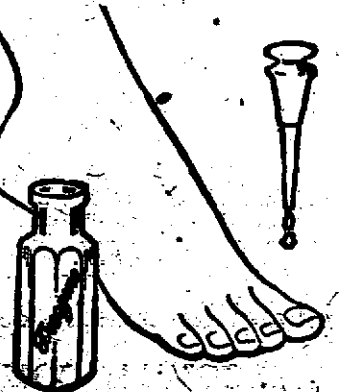

"Although special interests may find advantage in these recent advances the welfare of the entire commercial and industrial community is best to be served, not by price increases, but by a stabilization of the entire situation. This has now become a matter of necessity, since banking facilities are under a heavy burden in the effort to furnish adequate credit accommodations to those essential productive enterprises on which the economic welfare of the country must always rest. If production and consumption can be quietly directed into those channels which an intelligent policy of credit conservation indicates, the situation has within itself the elements of self-adjustment. The ultimate interest of every individual enterprise requires that this be accomplished, and the entire business thought of the country should be directed to this end."

A Country Without Toys

Think of a country without toys. It seems hard to imagine such a place when every youngster on our own streets is coasting on skates or a kiddie car, playing ball or shouting with the joy of youth.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stings hurting; then shortly you lift it, bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly, No Fussing!

Sap and Salt

Don't make the sad mistake of ignoring experience.

Common sense is the most uncommon thing there is.

Many people give invitations in the hope that they will not be accepted.

The stingy side of a man's nature shows when he is asked to give money to a church.

The income tax and prohibition have made more lawbreakers, than any two other influences the world has ever known.

In the Armenian appeal being made this month Indiana people are to be asked to help the children in the "country that Santa Claus forgot." Miss Mary Frances Smith, an American girl, just returned from Armenia, is telling all the relief divisions of the country about the sad children of the desolate land. "I saw only one doll in all the months I was over there," she said, "and that belonged to a little American girl there with her parents."

Miss Smith was in charge of an orphanage at Marash for almost a year. She was mother, housekeeper, maid, teacher and playmate to more than 200 children between the ages of three and fifteen.

Whether it be autocracy or democracy, this world seems to be sizzling in the frying pan any way it turns.

And now that we have made the world safe for democracy, how are we going to save democracy from itself?

Despite our crude savagery, there is one thing about us Americans for which Europe entertains an undying affection—our cash.

When You Repeat Them.

Many old army officers were always desirous of commanding negro troops particularly the old Tenth Cavalry. The docility and pride of the coons made them worthy pupils. An Oregon captain typified this by referring to a railroad strike of '93 when Federal troops were brought in. A negro regular private was guarding the dead-line, and sporting a rifle, when one of the strikers ambled along and said:

"Mornin'."

"How-de-do. Jess keep back of dat line, ef you please."

"Say, you're a woykin man, ain't you?"

"Yes indeedy."

"Well, on the level, would you want to shoot up some other woykin man?"

"Not in pertickler," answered the trooper.

"Well, would you raise that there gun and plug holes in us strikers, who is woykin' men the same as youse? Would you?"

"No—not unless the Captain said so."

ENGLISH MIDDLE CLASS FORM UNION

Combine to Protect Selves From Aggressions of Capital and Labor.

Members of the great middle class of England at last have taken steps to organize to protect their own interests against the aggressions of capital on the one hand and increasing wages of workmen on the other. Leaders of the middle class declare that only by organization can they escape an unfair share of the burdens of life.

English people of education and moderate incomes have felt for some time that they were being ground between the upper and nether millstones operating in the social mill. Profits of capitalists from war contracts have increased and the wages of workmen steadily advanced. But nobody had to have the services of the professional man, the small business man or the schoolmaster.

A preliminary meeting was held under the chairmanship of Maj. J. R. Freeman Newman, member of parliament. It was decided to call the organization the "Middle Class union." Among the purposes of the union are:

"To remove undue burdens upon the middle class, including the cost of living.

"To protect the middle class against bureaucratic and industrial tyranny.

"To combine for common protection of those members of the community who have no organization to safeguard their interests."

Letters appearing in support of the union show that many army officers and other soldiers are deeply interested in the movement. One soldier wrote:

"Unless we of the middle classes organize and combine to thwart and destroy the anarchical aggressions of certain communities in the industrial world we will sooner or later be bootlicked out of existence."

How the middle class union will be received in the political field by the capitalists and the trade unions which now monopolize it remains to be seen.

INDIANS SEEK UPLIFT

Those Living in 'One Village Would Better Themselves.

Natives of Hoonah, an Indian village near Juneau, Alaska, have recently taken such radical steps toward an advancing trend of civilization that other native villages are wondering what they will try next.

First the Hoonah tribe abolished the elder business, an apparently harmless one, but one which was said to have caused much trouble among the natives. Next the Hoonah natives declined to attend an Indian feast at Swanson Harbor, thereby hoping to discourage the giving of feasts and continuing of ancient customs.

After electing a native council Hoonah built a jail and a hospital.

Whether as a reward for those signs of progress or not, the forestry department has agreed to send an agent to survey Hoonah townsite, so that each native may receive title to a building lot.

FILED OPENED IN 1900

The Sudan field of the United Presbyterian church was opened in 1900, but it was not until a few years ago the church obtained the first convert in its mission work there. Thousands of inhabitants of this field were reached and administered to in a religious way, and aided in illness or distress, and thousands have been attending services regularly.

Is it worth while? Remember the scripture text about one sinner and 99 just men, is the answer of New World Movement leaders, and there is hope for the thousands attending services.

Little Woman Gains 35 Pounds

Was in Bed Three Months and Weighed Only 80 Pounds Before Tanlac Restored Her

"I had been down in bed for three months when I started taking Tanlac, but in one week after I had taken my first dose I was able to be up and about," was the statement made the other day by Mrs. O. T. Under, 327 East Second St., Galesburg, Ill., in telling of her remarkable recovery since taking Tanlac.

"Only my neighbors can tell you the misery I have gone through during the past seven years, why, I have suffered a thousand deaths," she continued. "When I would study about my condition and the small chance I had of ever seeing another day I would almost go into hysterics. My nerves were almost completely shattered and I would become excited at the least little unexpected thing. I had indigestion so bad that I was almost afraid to eat anything because of the agony it would be in from the cramps and as I would get so deathly sick at my stomach sometimes that I would faint. At nights I would lie awake for hours and I kept losing weight until I was down to about eighty pounds. I was scarcely more than a frame and finally I got so weak that I gave away completely and had to take to my bed.

"This was the condition I was in when I was persuaded by a friend to try Tanlac, but as I had but little hope of ever getting out of bed again, I took it more to please her than anything else. Well, you can imagine how happy I felt when I began to improve—my nerves eased up and I began to relax and get more sleep, and in a day or two I was able to eat a little something. All this encouraged me so that I did not allow myself to miss a dose and in less than a week from the time I started taking Tanlac I was out of bed. And by the time I had taken our bottles I was able to do all my housework and take care of my five little children. And now I am in perfect health and can eat anything I please without ever troubling me in the least. I am not one bit nervous and sleep sound all night long. I have gained back all my lost strength and energy and weigh one hundred-fifteen pounds. My friends and neighbors are simply amazed at the way Tanlac has brought me out and I can hardly realize myself the well and happy condition I am in. I will praise Tanlac the longest day of my life for giving me back my long lost health."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.; in Milroy by Dalas Copper; in Manilla by Geo. J. Brown; and Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis.—(Adv.)

Women Tourists Describe Automobile Trip to Florida

Mrs. Lenora Blackledge and Mrs. John T. Cassidy write as follows regarding an automobile trip which they made to Florida.

Thinking our friends back home would be interested to learn of our safe arrival in Florida, we will drop you a few lines telling of our interesting trip. Leaving Rushville, December 3, we found southern Indiana roads not muddy but worn and bumpy due to heavy traffic from Louisville.

At Bardstown, Ky., we visited the "Foster Home" where "The Old Kentucky Home" was written. Also the beautiful Catholic church, where we saw the famous painting, said to have been brought by Louis XVI of France when he was dethroned. The town is also noted for its monastery, convents and academy.

Next we visited Hodgenville and the famous "Lincoln Farm" and Memorial Hall. This Memorial Hall is built over the original Lincoln cabin. We were proud to learn that four of our Rushville men contributed to the building of this beautiful memorial, John K. Gowdy, J. B. Reeves, Earl Payne and Anthony Schriebe. We also visited Mammoth Cave, taking two routes, one in the afternoon and one at night. We enjoyed seeing the huge formation of rocks and the boat ride on Echo river.

So far the stone roads through Kentucky had been good, but near Bowling Green we struck nine miles of cobble stone roads.

At Nashville we stopped two days and nights visiting relatives and sight seeing. One evening we heard Gen. Pershing. Nashville gave him quite an ovation. Through Tennessee the roads were lined with cotton wagons. Many cotton growers are holding this and last year's crop for higher prices, wanting 40 cents per pound. Along the way we stopped to pick cotton and were interested to see the cotton gins in operation.

We were very much surprised all the way through Kentucky and Tennessee to see so many modern homes and new bungaloes, the farmers evidently having made a lot of money off of their tobacco and cotton crops the last few years.

At Huntsville, Alabama, the Chamber of Commerce was directing all tourists to detour on account of the Dixie Highway being rebuilt. This detour led all tourists over three mountains. Those taking the Dixie Highway from Huntsville were charged from forty to one hundred dollars to be hauled through. So we were glad to detour over the mountains. All tourists had to be hauled the last mile at the top of Gunter's mountain. After crossing the mountain, a distance of seven miles, we descended to the Tennessee river where we were ferried across to Gunterville.

The next day we drove over Sand mountain, driving seventeen miles over level roads and were surprised to have a broken spring.

After a delay of four hours we proceeded to Gadsden mountain. In descending this mountain of wide sweeping curves we stopped different times to view the beautiful panorama spread out before us of fertile fields, winding rivers, and three thriving cities, Atlanta, Alabama City, and Gadsden.

On the way to Rome, Georgia we saw ox teams hauling in logs which was a new sight to us Hoosiers. During the night at Rome it rained and we had a new experience driving on Georgia red clay road, not deep mud but very slick. We were glad to reach Atlanta safely. In this interesting city we spent two days sight seeing and resting.

From Atlanta to Waycross we had excellent roads, the red clay having enough sand mixed with it to pack well.

We arrived in Jacksonville, Christmas eve, having been on the road three weeks. In the city park was a large Christmas tree beautifully illuminated and the city was in a festive mood for the yuletide.

After eating turkey dinner at the Y. W. C. A. we left for St. Augustine over fine roads, arriving in time to see a good deal of the quaint old city that evening. The next day we were piloted around the city by Miss Winnie Muir, who conducts a successful Oriental shop in this city and makes her home with Mrs. Mable Quam Stevens, who was a popular lecturer at our Chautauqua last year.

Besides seeing the Old Fort, City Gates, the oldest house in the United States, we had the privilege of going to the top of the light house on an island, one of the highest on the Atlantic coast.

Continuing our journey over paved roads, we visited Sea Breeze, Daytona Beach and Daytona. From here we had paved roads all the way to Orlando, our destination. This is a beautiful city and the inland resort for Florida. It is a picturesque city, having seventeen lakes and abounding in live oak trees hung with Spanish moss, graceful palm trees and masses of roses and poinsettias.

The city is overflowing with tourists, many forms of amusement being provided for their entertainment. The Board of Trade maintains a tourists club house and also pays twelve thousand dollars for band concerts to be given in beautiful Eola Lake Parks.

We are glad to be here in spite of numerous predictions that we would get stuck in the mud and never get here. We found we were not the only "geese flying south" as we met many tourists on the way from almost all states. Some of them had one, two and three roomed houses built on Ford and Reo Chassis, from as far as Boston, Mass.

PEACE OFFICERS OF IDAHO MEET TODAY

R. O. Jones Planned to Outline Details of Finger Print System Which Will be State Wide

REPRESENTS CONSTABULARY

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 6—Idaho's peace officers met here today in a school of instruction. Robert O. Jones, commissioner of law enforcement, and head of the state constabulary, called the meeting with the object of gaining closer co-operation.

Attending the convention were sheriffs, police chiefs, representatives of U. S. marshals and revenue officers.

Jones planned to outline details of a new finger print system which will be state wide.

The meeting practically was representative of the entire state constabulary, for each of the state officers attending can be called into that body on a moment's notice. Idaho is the first western state to have the constabulary. It has proved effective in rounding up radicals.

FURNISH NO STATIONERY

Tourists Must Provide Own Envelopes and Paper in Europe.

(By United Press.)

Paris, (By Mail)—Before the war it was a well-established rule in all guide books of European travel for the tourist to bring his own soap with him as European hotels do not furnish soap.

The same rule still holds good while an additional one will soon require him to bring his own envelopes and writing paper as well.

The French Union of Hotelkeepers has just decided that after next April guests in Paris hotels will have to do their own skinishing for stationery or else pay for it. The price fixed is five centimes for every sheet of note paper. The envelope will be presented as a gift.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty

Oh, girls, such an abundance of thick, heavy, invigorated hair; a perfect mass of wavy, silky hair, gloriously fluffy, bright and so easy to manage.

Just moisten a cloth with a little "Danderine" and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this magically removes all dirt, excess oil and grease, but your hair is not left brittle, dry, stringy or faded, but charmingly soft, with glossy, golden gleams and tender lights. The youthful glints, tints and color are again in your hair.

"Danderine" is a tonic-beautifier. Besides doubling the beauty of the hair at once, it checks dandruff and stops falling hair. Get delightful Danderine for a few cents at any drug or toilet counter and use it as a dressing and invigorator as told on bottle.

WORRY AND WRINKLES

Despondency is a thing of evil results. Worry produces nothing but wrinkles and wretchedness. Let the reader put a note on her bureau, on her desk, and at the head of her bed, just two words, "Don't Worry"

Worry is the greatest foe to the happiness of any household. An anxious, despondent face, a fretful, complaining voice, will make every one uncomfortable.

A woman's nerves are more truly the cause of worry than outside troubles. The nerves are to a woman's body the telegraph system which surely warns her of any trouble in the feminine make-up. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the ideal woman's tonic for such conditions. When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or bearing-down, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic, known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or liquid. Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send a trial size of "Favorite Prescription" tablets for 10c. Also write Dr. Pierce for confidential advice and you will receive the medical attention of a specialist, wholly without fee—no charge whatever.

"FIDDLE-FIT"

Keep Liver and Bowels Clean and Active with "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache. Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascarets tonight will leave you feeling clear, rosy and as fit as a fiddle by morning. They work while you sleep.

Last Time For Billie Burke

Life in Greenwich Village, New York's picturesque bohemian quarter, forms the interesting background for the early action in Billie Burke's latest picture, "Wanted—A Husband," which will be shown for the last time at the Princess theater tonight.

Since the picture was made in the metropolis, the director was able to "shoot" the scenes in the Village itself. Miss Burke is a designer of wall paper who occupies a studio apartment with two other girl artists. Her carelessness about her personal appearance makes her the butt of their gibes until, aroused, she develops herself through training into a radiant beauty.

Harry Carey at The Mystic

The average featured western photoplayer sits under the shade of a giant cactus while his "double" does all the dangerous work for the scene.

The exception to the rule is Harry Carey, the Universal western star, whose daring work in Universal photodramas has won for him the world-wide title "The Ace of the Saddle."

In "The Rider of the Law," which comes today to the Mystic theater, Harry Carey did a bit of riding that almost loosened every tooth in his head.

He rode "Dynamite" a notoriously bad horse who cared not a whit for the motion picture camera and concentrated his entire mind on dislodging the rider. Yet with his superb horsemanship Carey stayed on top and eventually tamed the wild animal down to about three-kitten power.

"The Rider of the Law" is the story of an officer of the famous old Texas police organization. He is torn between duty and family affection but takes the right course for all concerned.

Gladys Leslie will be seen tomorrow in "The Girl Whoan" and Harold Lloyd in a comedy, "Never Touched Me."

LOCAL DRUGGISTS AWARDED AGENCY

Trutona, the perfect tonic, that has now become widely popular in Louisville and a score of other large cities; now is on sale in the drug store of Hargrove and Mullin.

The unprecedented success of Trutona is due entirely to its efficiency. Scores of people are daily testifying to the beneficial results they have obtained from its use. What better proof of a medicine's merit could be desired?

Trutona is a tonic of the highest degree, exciting the appetite and invigorating the digestion. It is highly recommended for the treatment of dyspepsia, stomach trouble, liver and bowel troubles and catarrhal affections. Its action on the liver is almost instantaneous, exciting that most important organ when languid and resolving its torpor and chronic engorgement.

Trutona acts directly on the mucous membrane, producing a sharply stimulative effect and leaving a pleasant tonic condition. It is a very valuable agency in all catarrhal affections, including those of the alimentary tract, head and nose. Trutona is a prompt, efficient and absolutely safe laxative. It is a strength builder unsurpassed by any preparation. Its use is recommended by run-down and weakened men and women who are recovering from the serious after-effects of pneumonia, influenza and deep colds.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Rushville at Hargrove and Mullin's Drug Store. Adv.

The railroads are indispensable to our whole economic life, and railway securities are at the very heart of most investment in large and small, public and private, by individuals and by institutions.
WOODROW WILSON

THE war could not have been won without railroads. Transport—by rail and sea—is an indispensable arm of national defence.

Garrying capacity, from the wheat fields and the mines and the steel mills to the front lines in France, was the measure of our power in war.

And it is the measure of our power in peace.

Industrial expansion—increasing national prosperity—greater world trade—are vitally dependent on railroad growth.

The limit to the productive power of this country is the limit set by railroad capacity to haul the products of our industry.

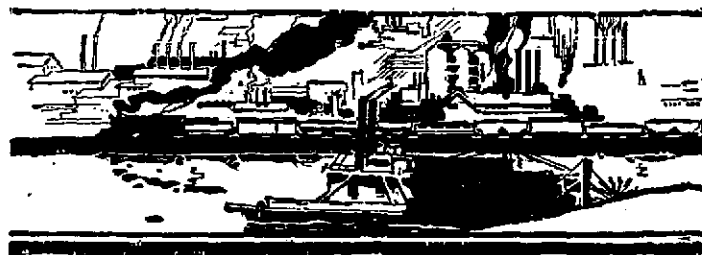

The amount of freight carried on American rails doubled from 1897 to 1905—since that year it has doubled again.

It will double still again.

To haul this rapidly growing traffic the country must have more railroads—more cars and engines—more tracks and terminals.

Sound national legislation, broad-visioned public regulation will encourage the expansion of railroads, without which the nation cannot grow.

This advertisement is published by the Association of Railway Executives

PURCHASE OF TESTED SEED POTATOES URGED

List of Available Places Has Been Received Here by County Agent Detrick From Purdue

SEEDS TESTED BY EXPERTS

County Agent M. F. Detrick has received a list of people who has seed potatoes for sale, and will gladly give the list to anyone who desires to purchase seed potatoes that are tested and free from disease. The list sent Mr. Detrick was compiled by the horticulture department at Purdue University and the names given are people whose seed potatoes were tested in the field by an expert botanist.

The county agent stated that anyone who will plant potatoes should make an investigation of the value of tested seed as the production will be so much greater than using seed of an inferior grade.

The list as received from the state department, also gives the price in 50 and 100 bushel lots. Mr. Detrick is not acting as an agent in the matter, but has the information as to who has the potatoes, and the purchaser will do the buying.

VIENNA—A gourmand has no redress against a profiteer, according to a decision handed down here. Rolf Zimmermann, government official, charged profiteering against a restaurant, but hearing that he ordered soup, roast beef, roast veal, a pork chop, half a pheasant, a quarter of a fowl, two sausages with sauerkraut, three apple tarts and a fig pudding, the judge dismissed the case.

Moved

Having moved my top factory to the Wade Sherman building in South Perkins street, we are now in position to do all kinds of top and curtain work.
